

Four Questions

How can technology help us?

Access To Information	Professional Learning	Best Practice Adoption	Collaborative Communications
How can we use our web site to provide employees with instant access to job critical information, student data, and program/service reports?	How can we design, sequence, and merge all electronic and non-electronic components of professional development together for ongoing workplace use?	How can we use job performance support tools to increase critical competencies of faculty and staff?	How can we use our web site to incent and reward knowledge sharing between stakeholders?
